JOURNALING

CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH.

We know some interesting facts about the Elizabeth River, because many have kept journals, like Captain John Smith who explored the Elizabeth River on his second journey to bay in 1608.

Journal writing means you regularly write down your thoughts and experiences. Princess Elizabeth would love to read your journal entry about your barge field trip.
