RIVERFest Kayak Rules:

Kayaks have a weight limit of 225 lbs per person.

- Children must be at least 6 years of age to participate in kayaking.
- Children between 6 and 12 years of age must share a tandem kayak with a parent or guardian.
- Children between 12 and 16 years of age may use a single kayak but a parent or guardian must paddle at the same time.
- Teenagers 16+ years of age may kayak solo with a parent or guardian's written permission.
- All kayakers must wear a life jacket at all times while kayaking.
- Kayaking is a water sport, anything you wear or bring on the kayak has the potential to get wet or lost. If you choose to bring items such as a camera or phones in the kayak we recommend bringing a zip lock or dry bag with strap to attach to yourself.
